

Somers
WAKES your business.
WAKES it all the time.
WAKES you satisfied.
WAKES you to talk about his product.
WAKES you to know that the quality of provisions will be the best and his price is not as high as you may be paying elsewhere.

Come to market with
Somers
$9.75
For a few days only we are offering a 7 jewel
Waltham
movement in a 20 year filled case for $9.75.

A reliable Jeweler's guarantee is an extra value to purchaser.

Forrester & Charbonneau,
FRANKLIN SQUARE.

We will serve a Special Dinner
Sunday, April 23,
from 6 to 8.30 o'clock

MUSIC BY THE ORCHESTRA
Tables reserved upon application.
Phone No. 794.
The Wauvegan House
Parker-Davenport Co.,
Proprietors.

Dr. F. W. HOLMES, Dental
Telephone 612. et al
Shannon Building Annex, Room A.

Next it is
MAY BASKETS
Come in and see our line

Cranston & Co.
LANG
Dry Cleaner and Dyer
157 Franklin St.
SUITS PRESSED 50c
Our Wagon Calls Everywhere

NOTICE
On account of the present condition of Fairview Reservoir, the use of hose for street, lawn or garden sprinkling is strictly prohibited until further notice. This order will be strictly enforced.

Per order
BOARD OF WATER COMMISSIONERS.
The Bonds Are Settling
and pleasure driving will be the best and cheapest way to get the embracing fresh air that is better than the best tonic. Phone us for a good team.

MAHONEY BROS.
Livery Stable, Falls Avenue.

We Give Special Attention
to the painting and repairing of all kinds of automobile and carriage work.

Prices reasonable and satisfaction guaranteed
The Scon & Clark
CORPORATION,
507-515 North Main Street

LOUIS H. BRUNELLE
10 Carter Ave. (East Side)
Play Cake and Bread that cannot be excelled.
Phone your order. Prompt service.

WALKER
The first of the holiday home-coming left town on Sunday.

Alpharetta from California reached town in time for the holiday feast.

Several from here will go to Boston tomorrow to be guests of friends on Patriots' day.

Early birds are pleased with the weathering days. It is sunrise now about 5 o'clock.

St. James' Lodge, No. 28, works the E. A. degree this evening—adv.

There were a number of informal Easter Monday social affairs to mark the conclusion of Lent.

Those who have been looking for the dainty flower past that trailing arboreal is very late this spring.

Tinsel Easter post cards, mailed without being enclosed in an envelope, have been sent to the dead letter office.

Apron, novelty and cake sale, Spiritual Academy, Wed. and Thurs. special suppers 5 to 7.30, 15c—adv.

Don't forget the Military Ball of the Fifth Co., C. A. C., at the Armory Wednesday evening. Miller's orchestra—adv.

Pupils in the kindergarten department of the schools are already making May baskets as gifts for parents and friends.

Norwich members of the Connecticut State Dental association will attend the annual convention in Hartford today and Wednesday.

The tercentenary of the King James version of the English Bible, 1611-1911, will be observed by many churches next Sunday.

A regular high mass was celebrated at St. Patrick's church on Monday for Mrs. James Leary, whose funeral was held on Sunday afternoon.

Licenses your dog in the town clerk's office now. One dollar extra after May 1. Office open daily from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.—adv.

According to official returns, the total of marriages filed in Norwich last week was $3,100, against $12,235 in the corresponding week of 1910.

The state German societies have decided to hold German day in New Haven this year, on August 7. The combined societies have a membership of 12,000.

The annual meetings of the Inter-Parochial Missions Study class are to be held at Christ Church, New Haven, on Saturday. The subject under discussion will be "The Missionary Work Among the Negroes."

Eight new corporations, having a total authorized capital stock of $350,000, were formed in this state during the past week. The number in this class was the same, but in that year the total capital was only $172,000.

Annual meeting of City Union, King's Daughters and Sons, at Trinity Episcopal church this evening at 7.30 o'clock—adv.

Connecticut naturalists have been invited to attend the annual meeting of the New England Federation of Naturalists in the rooms of the Boston Society of Natural History on Saturday next.

The Plumbers' union held its regular meeting on Monday evening in C. D. I. hall. The meeting was well attended. Some of the members stated afterwards that there were no new developments to be reported in the strike situation here.

Col. and Mrs. D. C. Brown of Port Chester, New York, made a short business trip to their summer home in Greenvale a few days ago. A number of fine trees have been planted near their home which were recently sent from New York.

The cold weather has benefited Toland county owners of maple groves and has made making maple syrup and maple as the result of the late spring. Vermont grove owners have turned out from their trees more sugar than ever before in a single season.

The tax collector will be at the Yantic store today from 10 to 11.30 a. m. and at the store of Patrick T. Connell, Bean Hill, from 12 m. to 1.30 p. m.—adv.

Miss Jeanette Schwartz gave an entertainment in her home in New London Sunday evening in honor of two guests, Miss Rose J. Brown. The home was prettily decorated. Instrumental and vocal music was rendered and a supper was served. Norwich people attended.

H. D. Saxton, manager of The Griswold hotel, Eastern Point, was there over Sunday. Manager Saxton came from New York, where he has been since closing Mr. Platt's winter hotel at Bellairs, Fla., to arrange for the opening of The Griswold some time late in June.

The cemetery committee of Independent Norwich lodge, No. 308, I. O. E. A., visited on Monday afternoon the plot of ground which the lodge has bought at Prospect park for a cemetery. The trip was for the purpose of looking it over before they proceed to make plans for its development.

Bridgeport papers state that today (Tuesday) St. Anthony's French Catholic church there will celebrate the twenty-fifth year of its existence. The present pastor is Rev. J. V. E. Belanger, who went from St. Thomas church, Vermont, about six months ago, and who has been very successful in his pastorate.

Friends of Luther K. Zapriskie continue to hear most interesting news of his experiences in Cillao, Peru, where he is in the United States consulate. At this season residents of that country are enjoying new green, corn, string beans and other spring vegetables, and the climate and surroundings are delightful.

Reading, "The Merchant of Venice," by Professor Crosby, Brown university in Slater Memorial, tonight, at 8 p. m. The first literary treat that can be offered. Admission 50c. Tickets on sale at door—adv.

Those who visited Capt. Josiah Stinson's little ship Spray when it tied up at a local wharf several years ago, will regret to learn that no word has been heard from Captain Stinson for two years since he left Vineyard Haven, Mass., for the West Indies, and that his wife, at their home in New Bedford, believes him and skipper

WALKER
The first of the holiday home-coming left town on Sunday.

Alpharetta from California reached town in time for the holiday feast.

Several from here will go to Boston tomorrow to be guests of friends on Patriots' day.

Early birds are pleased with the weathering days. It is sunrise now about 5 o'clock.

St. James' Lodge, No. 28, works the E. A. degree this evening—adv.

There were a number of informal Easter Monday social affairs to mark the conclusion of Lent.

Those who have been looking for the dainty flower past that trailing arboreal is very late this spring.

Tinsel Easter post cards, mailed without being enclosed in an envelope, have been sent to the dead letter office.

Apron, novelty and cake sale, Spiritual Academy, Wed. and Thurs. special suppers 5 to 7.30, 15c—adv.

Don't forget the Military Ball of the Fifth Co., C. A. C., at the Armory Wednesday evening. Miller's orchestra—adv.

Pupils in the kindergarten department of the schools are already making May baskets as gifts for parents and friends.

Norwich members of the Connecticut State Dental association will attend the annual convention in Hartford today and Wednesday.

The tercentenary of the King James version of the English Bible, 1611-1911, will be observed by many churches next Sunday.

A regular high mass was celebrated at St. Patrick's church on Monday for Mrs. James Leary, whose funeral was held on Sunday afternoon.

Licenses your dog in the town clerk's office now. One dollar extra after May 1. Office open daily from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.—adv.

According to official returns, the total of marriages filed in Norwich last week was $3,100, against $12,235 in the corresponding week of 1910.

The state German societies have decided to hold German day in New Haven this year, on August 7. The combined societies have a membership of 12,000.

The annual meetings of the Inter-Parochial Missions Study class are to be held at Christ Church, New Haven, on Saturday. The subject under discussion will be "The Missionary Work Among the Negroes."

Eight new corporations, having a total authorized capital stock of $350,000, were formed in this state during the past week. The number in this class was the same, but in that year the total capital was only $172,000.

Annual meeting of City Union, King's Daughters and Sons, at Trinity Episcopal church this evening at 7.30 o'clock—adv.

Connecticut naturalists have been invited to attend the annual meeting of the New England Federation of Naturalists in the rooms of the Boston Society of Natural History on Saturday next.

The Plumbers' union held its regular meeting on Monday evening in C. D. I. hall. The meeting was well attended. Some of the members stated afterwards that there were no new developments to be reported in the strike situation here.

Col. and Mrs. D. C. Brown of Port Chester, New York, made a short business trip to their summer home in Greenvale a few days ago. A number of fine trees have been planted near their home which were recently sent from New York.

The cold weather has benefited Toland county owners of maple groves and has made making maple syrup and maple as the result of the late spring. Vermont grove owners have turned out from their trees more sugar than ever before in a single season.

The tax collector will be at the Yantic store today from 10 to 11.30 a. m. and at the store of Patrick T. Connell, Bean Hill, from 12 m. to 1.30 p. m.—adv.

Miss Jeanette Schwartz gave an entertainment in her home in New London Sunday evening in honor of two guests, Miss Rose J. Brown. The home was prettily decorated. Instrumental and vocal music was rendered and a supper was served. Norwich people attended.

H. D. Saxton, manager of The Griswold hotel, Eastern Point, was there over Sunday. Manager Saxton came from New York, where he has been since closing Mr. Platt's winter hotel at Bellairs, Fla., to arrange for the opening of The Griswold some time late in June.

The cemetery committee of Independent Norwich lodge, No. 308, I. O. E. A., visited on Monday afternoon the plot of ground which the lodge has bought at Prospect park for a cemetery. The trip was for the purpose of looking it over before they proceed to make plans for its development.

Bridgeport papers state that today (Tuesday) St. Anthony's French Catholic church there will celebrate the twenty-fifth year of its existence. The present pastor is Rev. J. V. E. Belanger, who went from St. Thomas church, Vermont, about six months ago, and who has been very successful in his pastorate.

Friends of Luther K. Zapriskie continue to hear most interesting news of his experiences in Cillao, Peru, where he is in the United States consulate. At this season residents of that country are enjoying new green, corn, string beans and other spring vegetables, and the climate and surroundings are delightful.

Reading, "The Merchant of Venice," by Professor Crosby, Brown university in Slater Memorial, tonight, at 8 p. m. The first literary treat that can be offered. Admission 50c. Tickets on sale at door—adv.

Those who visited Capt. Josiah Stinson's little ship Spray when it tied up at a local wharf several years ago, will regret to learn that no word has been heard from Captain Stinson for two years since he left Vineyard Haven, Mass., for the West Indies, and that his wife, at their home in New Bedford, believes him and skipper

DEATH RATE HERE WAS BELOW THE AVERAGE.
There Were 42 Who Passed Away in Norwich in Month of March.

By mortality reports received by the state board of health there were 1,432 deaths during the month of March. This was 126 more than in February and 50 more than in March of last year and 138 more than the average number of deaths during March for the five years preceding.

The death rate was 18.3 for the large towns, for the small towns 18.4, and for the whole state 18.3.

The deaths reported from infectious diseases were 298, being 16.7 per cent. of the total mortality.

There were in Norwich 42 deaths in March, representing a death rate of 18.1 per thousand. There were 10 deaths under 5 years. The causes were diseases of the nervous system 5, heart diseases 4, consumption 4, laryngitis 2, accident 1, cerebrospinal meningitis 1, whooping cough 1, all other causes 13. There were 28 males and 14 females. There were 5 deaths here in public institutions.

WALKER
The first of the holiday home-coming left town on Sunday.

Alpharetta from California reached town in time for the holiday feast.

Several from here will go to Boston tomorrow to be guests of friends on Patriots' day.

Early birds are pleased with the weathering days. It is sunrise now about 5 o'clock.

St. James' Lodge, No. 28, works the E. A. degree this evening—adv.

There were a number of informal Easter Monday social affairs to mark the conclusion of Lent.

Those who have been looking for the dainty flower past that trailing arboreal is very late this spring.

Tinsel Easter post cards, mailed without being enclosed in an envelope, have been sent to the dead letter office.

Apron, novelty and cake sale, Spiritual Academy, Wed. and Thurs. special suppers 5 to 7.30, 15c—adv.

Don't forget the Military Ball of the Fifth Co., C. A. C., at the Armory Wednesday evening. Miller's orchestra—adv.

Pupils in the kindergarten department of the schools are already making May baskets as gifts for parents and friends.

Norwich members of the Connecticut State Dental association will attend the annual convention in Hartford today and Wednesday.

The tercentenary of the King James version of the English Bible, 1611-1911, will be observed by many churches next Sunday.

A regular high mass was celebrated at St. Patrick's church on Monday for Mrs. James Leary, whose funeral was held on Sunday afternoon.

Licenses your dog in the town clerk's office now. One dollar extra after May 1. Office open daily from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.—adv.

According to official returns, the total of marriages filed in Norwich last week was $3,100, against $12,235 in the corresponding week of 1910.

The state German societies have decided to hold German day in New Haven this year, on August 7. The combined societies have a membership of 12,000.

The annual meetings of the Inter-Parochial Missions Study class are to be held at Christ Church, New Haven, on Saturday. The subject under discussion will be "The Missionary Work Among the Negroes."

Eight new corporations, having a total authorized capital stock of $350,000, were formed in this state during the past week. The number in this class was the same, but in that year the total capital was only $172,000.

Annual meeting of City Union, King's Daughters and Sons, at Trinity Episcopal church this evening at 7.30 o'clock—adv.

Connecticut naturalists have been invited to attend the annual meeting of the New England Federation of Naturalists in the rooms of the Boston Society of Natural History on Saturday next.

The Plumbers' union held its regular meeting on Monday evening in C. D. I. hall. The meeting was well attended. Some of the members stated afterwards that there were no new developments to be reported in the strike situation here.

Col. and Mrs. D. C. Brown of Port Chester, New York, made a short business trip to their summer home in Greenvale a few days ago. A number of fine trees have been planted near their home which were recently sent from New York.

The cold weather has benefited Toland county owners of maple groves and has made making maple syrup and maple as the result of the late spring. Vermont grove owners have turned out from their trees more sugar than ever before in a single season.

The tax collector will be at the Yantic store today from 10 to 11.30 a. m. and at the store of Patrick T. Connell, Bean Hill, from 12 m. to 1.30 p. m.—adv.

Miss Jeanette Schwartz gave an entertainment in her home in New London Sunday evening in honor of two guests, Miss Rose J. Brown. The home was prettily decorated. Instrumental and vocal music was rendered and a supper was served. Norwich people attended.

H. D. Saxton, manager of The Griswold hotel, Eastern Point, was there over Sunday. Manager Saxton came from New York, where he has been since closing Mr. Platt's winter hotel at Bellairs, Fla., to arrange for the opening of The Griswold some time late in June.

The cemetery committee of Independent Norwich lodge, No. 308, I. O. E. A., visited on Monday afternoon the plot of ground which the lodge has bought at Prospect park for a cemetery. The trip was for the purpose of looking it over before they proceed to make plans for its development.

Bridgeport papers state that today (Tuesday) St. Anthony's French Catholic church there will celebrate the twenty-fifth year of its existence. The present pastor is Rev. J. V. E. Belanger, who went from St. Thomas church, Vermont, about six months ago, and who has been very successful in his pastorate.

Friends of Luther K. Zapriskie continue to hear most interesting news of his experiences in Cillao, Peru, where he is in the United States consulate. At this season residents of that country are enjoying new green, corn, string beans and other spring vegetables, and the climate and surroundings are delightful.

Reading, "The Merchant of Venice," by Professor Crosby, Brown university in Slater Memorial, tonight, at 8 p. m. The first literary treat that can be offered. Admission 50c. Tickets on sale at door—adv.

Those who visited Capt. Josiah Stinson's little ship Spray when it tied up at a local wharf several years ago, will regret to learn that no word has been heard from Captain Stinson for two years since he left Vineyard Haven, Mass., for the West Indies, and that his wife, at their home in New Bedford, believes him and skipper

Board of Trade Hears Enthusiastic Talk by J. C. Knowlton of New Haven Matter Referred to the Civic Committee—April Meeting of Organization.

President Joseph H. Hayward presided at the meeting of the Board of Trade held last evening at the Hotel Hamilton. The subject was the New Haven matter referred to the Civic Committee.

The board of trade heard an enthusiastic talk by J. C. Knowlton of New Haven, who is the secretary of the Civic Committee. He spoke of the importance of the New Haven matter and the need for a strong civic organization.

Knowlton stated that the Civic Committee was organized for the purpose of promoting the interests of the city and the state. He said that the committee was now in the process of organizing a new civic organization.

Knowlton stated that the Civic Committee was now in the process of organizing a new civic organization. He said that the committee was now in the process of organizing a new civic organization.

WALKER
The first of the holiday home-coming left town on Sunday.

Alpharetta from California reached town in time for the holiday feast.

Several from here will go to Boston tomorrow to be guests of friends on Patriots' day.

Early birds are pleased with the weathering days. It is sunrise now about 5 o'clock.

St. James' Lodge, No. 28, works the E. A. degree this evening—adv.

There were a number of informal Easter Monday social affairs to mark the conclusion of Lent.

Those who have been looking for the dainty flower past that trailing arboreal is very late this spring.

Tinsel Easter post cards, mailed without being enclosed in an envelope, have been sent to the dead letter office.

Apron, novelty and cake sale, Spiritual Academy, Wed. and Thurs. special suppers 5 to 7.30, 15c—adv.

Don't forget the Military Ball of the Fifth Co., C. A. C., at the Armory Wednesday evening. Miller's orchestra—adv.

Pupils in the kindergarten department of the schools are already making May baskets as gifts for parents and friends.

Norwich members of the Connecticut State Dental association will attend the annual convention in Hartford today and Wednesday.

The tercentenary of the King James version of the English Bible, 1611-1911, will be observed by many churches next Sunday.

A regular high mass was celebrated at St. Patrick's church on Monday for Mrs. James Leary, whose funeral was held on Sunday afternoon.

Licenses your dog in the town clerk's office now. One dollar extra after May 1. Office open daily from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.—adv.

According to official returns, the total of marriages filed in Norwich last week was $3,100, against $12,235 in the corresponding week of 1910.

The state German societies have decided to hold German day in New Haven this year, on August 7. The combined societies have a membership of 12,000.

The annual meetings of the Inter-Parochial Missions Study class are to be held at Christ Church, New Haven, on Saturday. The subject under discussion will be "The Missionary Work Among the Negroes."

Eight new corporations, having a total authorized capital stock of $350,000, were formed in this state during the past week. The number in this class was the same, but in that year the total capital was only $172,000.

Annual meeting of City Union, King's Daughters and Sons, at Trinity Episcopal church this evening at 7.30 o'clock—adv.

Connecticut naturalists have been invited to attend the annual meeting of the New England Federation of Naturalists in the rooms of the Boston Society of Natural History on Saturday next.

The Plumbers' union held its regular meeting on Monday evening in C. D. I. hall. The meeting was well attended. Some of the members stated afterwards that there were no new developments to be reported in the strike situation here.

Col. and Mrs. D. C. Brown of Port Chester, New York, made a short business trip to their summer home in Greenvale a few days ago. A number of fine trees have been planted near their home which were recently sent from New York.

The cold weather has benefited Toland county owners of maple groves and has made making maple syrup and maple as the result of the late spring. Vermont grove owners have turned out from their trees more sugar than ever before in a single season.

The tax collector will be at the Yantic store today from 10 to 11.30 a. m. and at the store of Patrick T. Connell, Bean Hill, from 12 m. to 1.30 p. m.—adv.

Miss Jeanette Schwartz gave an entertainment in her home in New London Sunday evening in honor of two guests, Miss Rose J. Brown. The home was prettily decorated. Instrumental and vocal music was rendered and a supper was served. Norwich people attended.

H. D. Saxton, manager of The Griswold hotel, Eastern Point, was there over Sunday. Manager Saxton came from New York, where he has been since closing Mr. Platt's winter hotel at Bellairs, Fla., to arrange for the opening of The Griswold some time late in June.

The cemetery committee of Independent Norwich lodge, No. 308, I. O. E. A., visited on Monday afternoon the plot of ground which the lodge has bought at Prospect park for a cemetery. The trip was for the purpose of looking it over before they proceed to make plans for its development.

Bridgeport papers state that today (Tuesday) St. Anthony's French Catholic church there will celebrate the twenty-fifth year of its existence. The present pastor is Rev. J. V. E. Belanger, who went from St. Thomas church, Vermont, about six months ago, and who has been very successful in his pastorate.

Friends of Luther K. Zapriskie continue to hear most interesting news of his experiences in Cillao, Peru, where he is in the United States consulate. At this season residents of that country are enjoying new green, corn, string beans and other spring vegetables, and the climate and surroundings are delightful.

Reading, "The Merchant of Venice," by Professor Crosby, Brown university in Slater Memorial, tonight, at 8 p. m. The first literary treat that can be offered. Admission 50c. Tickets on sale at door—adv.

Those who visited Capt. Josiah Stinson's little ship Spray when it tied up at a local wharf several years ago, will regret to learn that no word has been heard from Captain Stinson for two years since he left Vineyard Haven, Mass., for the West Indies, and that his wife, at their home in New Bedford, believes him and skipper

Use of School Yards.
A. L. Pease said he thought that the children of the city are under restrictions. In many cases children are not allowed to use the grounds until a certain hour, but he thought that the use of them should be given to the children.

Albert Boardman said that children are not allowed to use the school yards because there is nothing there for legitimate play and wrong things are played. These should be things that are right.

Necessary for Children.
J. B. Stanton considered the best thing he has attempted in school work is the encouragement of children in the playing of games and athletics, which is the best thing that can be done for them.

Votes of Thanks.
A vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Knowlton, who answered numerous questions and was accorded much applause at the close. He said New Haven school grounds must be open for use of children in the neighborhood.

Playgrounds for Children.
President Hayward said he did not think that we give attention enough to the place where our children play. We provide for them in many ways, but we do not think that we give them enough attention.

WALKER
The first of the holiday home-coming left town on Sunday.

Alpharetta from California reached town in time for the holiday feast.

Several from here will go to Boston tomorrow to be guests of friends on Patriots' day.

Early birds are pleased with the weathering days. It is sunrise now about 5 o'clock.

St. James' Lodge, No. 28, works the E. A. degree this evening—adv.

There were a number of informal Easter Monday social affairs to mark the conclusion of Lent.

Those who have been looking for the dainty flower past that trailing arboreal is very late this spring.

Tinsel Easter post cards, mailed without being enclosed in an envelope, have been sent to the dead letter office.

Apron, novelty and cake sale, Spiritual Academy, Wed. and Thurs. special suppers 5 to 7.30, 15c—adv.

Don't forget the Military Ball of the Fifth Co., C. A. C., at the Armory Wednesday evening. Miller's orchestra—adv.

Pupils in the kindergarten department of the schools are already making May baskets as gifts for parents and friends.

Norwich members of the Connecticut State Dental association will attend the annual convention in Hartford today and Wednesday.

The tercentenary of the King James version of the English Bible, 1611-1911, will be observed by many churches next Sunday.

A regular high mass was celebrated at St. Patrick's church on Monday for Mrs. James Leary, whose funeral was held on Sunday afternoon.

Licenses your dog in the town clerk's office now. One dollar extra after May 1. Office open daily from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.—adv.

According to official returns, the total of marriages filed in Norwich last week was $3,100, against $12,235 in the corresponding week of 1910.

The state German societies have decided to hold German day in New Haven this year, on August 7. The combined societies have a membership of 12,000.

The annual meetings of the Inter-Parochial Missions Study class are to be held at Christ Church, New Haven, on Saturday. The subject under discussion will be "The Missionary Work Among the Negro